AMMA SRI KARUNAMAYI

Her Holiness Amma Sri Karunamayi is an embodiment of divine motherly love, and supreme spiritual knowledge. "Amma" means mother.

For details on Amma's missions, please visit www.karunamayi.org and www.karunaseva.org.

PROFESSOR NANJUNDA DIXIT

Prof. Dixit is a well-known Vedic scholar and a teacher from Bangalore, India. He has conducted Ati Rudra Maha Yajnams in India, Malaysia, Australia and other countries. Two of these were conducted in the divine presence of Bhagawan Sri Sathya Sai Baba in 2006 and 2007.

HOW CAN I CONTRIBUTE?

It is a divine grace and blessing to share this benediction. Purity of material is of utmost importance for a sacred fire ceremony of this magnitude. Material is being procured from well known sources in India to ensure the highest levels of quality and purity. There are a number of options available to contribute towards homam material such as bricks, ghee, etc. and food. Please visit the website for ways to volunteer and contribute.

ATI RUDRA MAHA YAJNAM

MAY 1 – 11, 2014
FORSYTH, ATLANTA, GA, USA

WHY DO WE PERFORM ATI RUDRA MAHA YAJNAM? IS THERE A FEE FOR PARTICIPATING?

Ati Rudra Maha Yajnam is being performed for the physical and mental welfare of all the beings in all the worlds and for universal peace and prosperity. Admission is free, and all are welcome to attend.

WHAT IS RUDRAM?

Sri Rudram is the center of the entire Vedas. Sri Rudram consists of 11 chapters (Anuvakams) each of Namakam and Chamakam. Namakam extols the divine light of the creator reflected in creation. Chamakam invokes the grace of the divine for various material and spiritual benefits, which are in turn offered for universal peace and well-being. The vibrations of this supreme hymn, Sri Rudram, purify the individual at all levels including body, mind, and intellect. Purification of the self leads to realizing the divinity within, as unity of creation and creator.

WHAT IS ATI RUDRAM?

It is the most potent and highest offering that involves chanting Namakam for 14,641 times along with Chamkam for 1,331 times by 12 Priests and 121 Ritviks (those well versed with chanting) over a period of 11 days.

WHAT IS ATI RUDRA MAHA YAJNAM?

It is chanting Ati Rudram in combination with Yajna (Sacred Fire) and Abhishekam (worship using holy waters, milk, honey, etc.). Performing these rituals, while chanting, amplifies the power of the mantras several thousand times.
